Fields of Spring

Where dreams bloom.

Spring 2026 awakens in pastel tones of dreams. The Fields of Spring collection is a tribute to innocence, lightness, and the longing for the simplicity of youth – like a story scented with wind, grass, and the first warmth of the sun.

Inspired by the world of dreamy meadows, romantic sensitivity, and a poetic view of nature, it transports us to a space where pink intertwines with green, and every shade softly illuminates the surroundings, like morning light caressing the treetops.

It is a palette that is nostalgic yet fresh – delicate pinks, greens, and subtle yellows weave a story of dreams, innocence, and a world slowly awakening to life.
